Before Beginning Operations on Woodwork Apply Coat of Vaseline to the Hardware.

Many farmers do a great deal of their own painting, interior and exterior. An amateur painter cannot avoid some points on the hardware, such as locks, hinges, handles, pulls, etc. This gives the finished job a homemade appearance and partly spoils the effect of the new coat of paint.

Here is a little trick of the painter's trade that will serve the amateur painter well. Before beginning to paint the hardware, apply a coating of vaseline to the hardware; let the paint dry thoroughly; then wipe the vaseline off the metal parts and the paint will come off with it. This insures a neat, even job of which the painter will be proud.

WATCH ALL EWES CAREFULLY Precautions Must Be Taken That Udders Do Not Cope After Lambs Have Been Weaned.

After the lambs have been weaned, the ewes should be put on a dry feed for a day in order to stop the flow of milk. The udders should be watched carefully and milked when necessary.
The future usefulness of the ewe may be ruined if her udder is allowed to milk.

Control Onion Smut.
Control onion smut by applying formaldehyde solution (one pint to 10 gallons of water) to the seed. The seed may be treated by means of a drip application on the seed.

Milk and butter are higher today in the cities than they ever were. There is no danger, either, of an over-stocked market.

VOL. XXXIII. NO. 27.

COX NOMINATED ON 44TH BALLOT

Governor Wins Fight for the Presidency

FIGHT NARROWS TO TWO

Delegates Voted Down Motion To Adjourn And Forced Continuance Of Balloting Until Well Into The Morning.

Auditorium, San Francisco.—Gov.
James M. Cox, of Ohio, was nominated for President by the Democratic National Convention on the forty-fourth ballot.

The victory for Governor Cox came at 1:40 o'clock A. M., after the convention had been in session since 9:30 o'clock Monday morning, with the exception of three and a half hours, and had taken 22 ballots altogether.

Withdrawal from the race by Attorney General Palmer after the thirty-eighth ballot, when ex-Secretary McAdoo was holding the lead, opened the way for the Cox victory.

Some of the McAdoo leaders admitted that Cox might get a majority, but argued that would not help him, as they would not weaken and would insist on his getting the necessary two-thirds by his own efforts and without their help.

At 10:12 o'clock Chairman Roblin-son decided the convention ought to go back to work. It went into the thirty-ninth ballot with a new enthusiasm. It was like a fresh start toward home after a long and vexat-ious delay at the roadside.

The 39th Ballot.
The shifts and changes of the ballot were important. Alabama, first crack out of the box, broke 16 to Davis, taking all of Palmer's and the rest mark on the forty-second ballot for McAdoo's for it. Arizona threw her four for Cox back to McAdoo.

Arkansas divided her two for Palmer equally between Cox and Mc-Adoo.

Georgia's 28 went solid for Mc-Adoo, as forecast, and the McAdoo monstrators got a great noise out of it.

Illinois gave her Palmer two to Cox three from 18 from McAdoo and three took 15.

A vote for Colby appeared in Massachusetts and Cox got 23 there.
That was enough to put the Cox parade in motion and it started off with a deafening roar.

The hand and organ opened up in the front row concerning "Ohio." The red-coated Cox band marched out in single file spreading itself across the balcony of the first balcony and let out a crashing din. One of the Cox boosters brought in a full-blooded Cox band as a standard and parading the band was heard about the hall.

It was far past the august cox-comb's bedtime and he didn't know what the hell was about anyway.
Hamilton Lewis, at the close of the session, aimlessly looking under the seats and through the press section, "You lost my hat and he passed the arm of a lovely lady from Kentucky, who said after he passed:
"He's a dear, but, you know, nobody with whiskers could be elected to any thing these days. I wonder why he does not take them off."

"He can't, they grow on him," said another woman. "It would be like painting the ily taking Jim Ham's whiskers away. He'd die. He's lived on them so long," said a delegate from Illinois, and the Kentucky lady hurried away in the crowd.

It was quite a while before J. Ham found his hat.

Mrs. Lula May Berry, delegate from Trenton, Mo., to the Democratic Convention, Monday cast the one and only vote thus tendered General Pershing.

"This being a Fourth of July holiday," Mrs. Berry explained, "I thought it was fitting that my little tribe be paid to the man who led our forces to victory in France."

NO LITTLE RED SCHOOL.
Charleston, W. Va.—Red or yellow school houses are banned in West Virginia. The State Department of Education has issued orders that red must not be used any more. Satisfactory colors are as follows: White trimmed in lead or dark gray, white trimmed in green, lead or gray trimmed in white and gray.

KILLED SIRE AND STEPFATHER.
Giri, 16, Exonerated in First Case, Sentenced in Second.

St. Louis.—Ursula Broderick, 16 years old, exonerated of killing her father in 1916, was sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary for the killing of her stepfather, Joseph Woodcock, in April, 1919. She filed notice of appeal and was released on $10,000 bail.
She has maintained the shot Woodcock in defense of her honor.

STATE CAPITAL

Ideal Health Conditions.

Cooperation of the best physicians and surgeons in Virginia in bringing about the ideal health conditions at the State penitentiary, the State farm and the various convict camps is sought through a conference which will be held at that institution at 3.30 o'clock on the afternoon of July 12.

The conference will be the result of a resolution passed by the penitentiary board of directors at its last session in which Dr. Stuart McGuire, president of the Medical Society of Virginia; the college faculty and the board of visitors, Dr. Ennion G. Wilson, of the State Department of Health; Major W. A. Brumfield, of the United States Public Health Service and members of the Medical Society of Virginia are invited to advise with the board at the July meeting.

This conference is in line with the policy of Governor Davis and the penitentiary board of directors to give the convicts the best possible medical attention. The Medical Society is a State institution, with some of the best medical talent in the South in its faculty, and the board wishes to enlist their active cooperation, along with that of the expert of the State Department of Health, in making sanitary and health conditions at Virginia's penal institutions the best in the country.

Members of the penitentiary board are Colonel LeRoy Hodges, chairman; O. F. Weisiger, James E. Brock-well and W. E. Sullivan.

The Medical Society of Virginia, which was organized in 1870, and reorganized three years ago to conform to the requirements of the American Medical Association, will hold its fifty-first annual meeting at Petersburg, October 26, 27, 28 and 29.

Many of the most prominent phywill be in attendance. The program of the convention will include a series of papers on up-to-date medical matters, surgery or sanitation.
